The office of the CGDC is situated in the very heart of the city centre of Vienna, a few steps away from two of the most prominent sights, the Opera House and Saint Stephen's Cathedral.

The so called Palais Corso, in which the office is located, was built in the second half of the 19th century and has maintained its elegant appearance. Completely renovated, it now houses several offices, together with the exclusive shopping centre Ringstraßengalerien and is surrounded by some of the best hotels in Vienna

EASILY TO REACH

If arriving by car please follow the direction centre/Zentrum until you reach the Ringstraße that surrounds the first district of Vienna. Once in this area please use our map to find your way to the CGDC-office.

Vienna's public transportation network also offers a number of options: The underground lines U1, U2 and U4, (please use the underground stop Karlsplatz and the exit Opera), the Badener Bahn, the tram lines 1, 2, 62, D or the bus 3A will practically bring you to the entrance of the CGDC-office.
